

Prince Edward June rules 1824

Jacob Woodrow late sheriff of Prince Edward and adm<sup>r</sup> of Asa Colly die<sup>d</sup> Edmund Colly in his individual capacity & as adm<sup>r</sup> of W<sup>m</sup> Colly die<sup>d</sup>, Elizabeth Colly Widow of said W<sup>m</sup> Colly die<sup>d</sup> & Eliza W<sup>m</sup> his infant daughters who sues by Edmund Colly In her next friend, James Gilliland and Chan Sally his wife formerly Sally Colly Isaac Colly emy Asa Colly, Nancy Colly & James Colly comp<sup>s</sup> against

Sally Colly widow of Asa Colly & W<sup>m</sup> Colly rem<sup>deft</sup> The complainants having filed their bill at least three months and the deft Sally Colly widow of Asa Colly die<sup>d</sup>, having also been served with the subpoena at least three months before the time of filing the answer & the said deft failing to answer on the motion of the comp<sup>s</sup> by their attorney, It is entered at rules aforesaid that the complainants bill be taken for confessed as to the said deft and the court will proceed at a future day to decree the matter thereof unless the said deft at or before the next court after she shall have been served with a copy of this rule show<sup>cause</sup> to the contrary

Teste

R. J. Woodrow De