Witnessed a deed of Wm. Eddins of Orange Co., Virginia to Shurley Whatley of St. Paul's Parish, Hanover Co., Virginia in 1735.

Lived in Orange; Cumberland; and Bedford Co's., in Virginia.

Valentine Corley, "in the decline of life," made his 'Will' on 10 Nov 1801; the 'Will' was proved on 24 Jan 1803; the appraisal of his estate was made on 28 Mar 1803. To his wife Sarah he left all stock, furniture etc. and four negroes: Betty, Rose, David & Sarah for life. He named son William; Sally Brown (no relationship stated); daughters Aggathy Simmons, Ann Pigg, Milly Anglia and Mary Duffer. One shilling sterling each was devised to Pearce Butler, George Brown ., James Corley's children, and granddaughter Sally Brown. Negroes Betty, Rose and Sarah were to be divided between his four daughters after his wife's decease and any increase to be divided between sons Caniel, William, and Asa Corley. Son William was to be executor, but if he would not serve, Edmund Duffy, Francis Vaughn and Robert Anglia were to serve. Asa Corley, Elijah Corley and Elizabeth Corley, witnesses, proved the will on 24 Jan 1803, and on the motion of Edmund Duffer and Bartlet Anglia, certificate for probate was granted them. The appraisal of his estate was made on 28 March 1803 and included eight slaves and furniture for a total value of f491:01:06.

Ancestor of L. Earl Colley, 321 Wells Avenue East, North Syracuse, NY. 13212-3113 (5/96).

I went back through my Corley files over the weekend and found some pages I had copied in Salt Lake. On page 5 of Colossal Collection of Corleys by Phyllis O. McMaster, published in 1989, she says family tradition is that Richard Corley was Scotch-Irish and came from Galway Co, Ireland. her records, and the other odds and ends that I have don't lead me to your Richards(the 3 of them), although I wish it did. I'd love to get the Corleys back to 1673. There was another item I looked at briefly in Salt Lake which might be of help to you(although I didn't think it related to my line at all). It was The Colley Family by Edward Colley, about 25 pages long, on Valentine Corley, born 1710-1720, in VA and who was possibly the son of a John Corley. Valentine's wife was Sarah (possibly the daughter of Robert Walker).
